WELCOME TO FASS '92 - Ain't Myth-Behavin' !

The Truth Behind The FASS Theatre Company:

We are Faculty, Alumni, Staff and Students -- a collection of fun-loving amateur actors and techies that specialize in creating new friendships while writing and staging a satiric musical the first week of every February. For thirty years we have been joining together in harmony (or as close as we can get to it) to bring some entertainment to the university community. I'm sure that many of you are wondering what one has to do to become part of the FASS family. The simplest thing of all is to come to the show and bring your friends...or even strangers for that matter! Then, the profits from these ticket sales are used to finance yet another play next year. We even put aside some funds to support the Ken Fryer Scholarship Fund and to donate equipment to the University theatres. If you'd like to do more than just watch the show, come to our Theme Selection Meeting in March, attend script-editing sessions from March to December, show up at the annual meeting in September, or sign up at auditions in the first week of January. Watch the FASS board in the Campus Centre for details all year round.

FASS has always been a very nurturing and supportive family. We'd like to pass that care on to you, our ever faithful audience. Therefore, we're going to have to ask you to follow these four simple rules:

1. You may not smoke in the theatre. A few hours without smoking will help you live longer.
2. Do not eat anything in the theatre. We want you to keep your lovely figures in shape.
3. No photographs during the show. If you catch any audience member in a compromising position, the photo may be used for blackmail purposes.
4. Tape recordings are a big no-no. When you attempt to listen to them later, the bad puns may cause permanent damage to your ear drums.
5. No Deposit and No Return on the show tickets...We've already done our share of recycling to help preserve our theatre environment for you.

General Disclaimer:

The characters and events portrayed in this show are strictly fictitious and bear no resemblance what-so-ever to real people or places whether living or dead, no matter how hard we tried. That means that Chuckie the Scoops Dude isn't really all that sweet and innocent and the Fed Hall Staff is not in any way mean or nasty.

A Brief Note From Our Director:

I'd just like to say 'Thank-you'.

Thanks to the cast for putting all they had into the show. Thanks to the techies who performed miracles overnight. Thanks to the writers for many tons of funny material. Thanks to the musicians and dancers. And of course, thanks to the audience.

But most importantly, thanks to FASS. People in FASS don't just put on a show once a year; They get together to have parties, go to coffee shops or movies; They make friends, change faculties/jobs/whatever and occasionally fall in love and get married.

What I'm trying to say is that being a part of FASS changes you, and your life is never the same again.

The Soon to be Infamous Cast of Real Characters:

For your viewing pleasure, we provide a detailed, itemized list of the order of events and the appearances of your friends and families. Pay close attention to the names as our writers spent many minutes actually thinking to come up with them. The original song titles that our parodies were derived from have been identified just in case you really didn't recognize the tune once we've finished with it.

FASS gives Kudos and Extra Special Thanks to:

Zel Whittington in Bookings; The Humanities Theatre Staff; The Gazette, especially Chris Redmond; The Imprint; Tom Galloway of Plant Ops for the custodian uniforms; Wayne Shortt of Security for the security uniforms; Dawn of the PAC Sports Shop for various equipment and donations; Chuck McMullen, Manager of Fed Hall for the Fed Hall staff T-shirts; Traces Screen Printing for the fabulous sweatshirt turnaround time; Topley Copy Centre for photocopying services above and beyond the call of duty; Heers Camera for fresh film supplies and discounts; To Lindsey Hartshorn who not only fulfilled her Presidential duties (by agreeing to marry the Director), but also doubled as our Technical Director! Three cheers for Lindsey!

And thanks go out to the University Community that has kept the spirit of FASS alive for the past 30 shows!! May we continue to pass the legacy of FASS on to our future generations!
