Since 1962, members of the university community have collaborated to write, produce, and perform a "home-groan" musical comedy. Chances are you know someone involved with the show; come and find out who!

UW Faculty Alumni Staff & Students

Welcome to FASS '94!

The show you're about to see is the result of many long hours of fun and hard work. Last March we brainstormed for ideas for the script. Through the summer and autumn we wrote, rewrote, and rewrote the rewritten. At the end of the first week of January we began organizing and auditioning. Through the cold, dark month we rehearsed, planned, built, and painted. And here we are, a few weeks later: Curtains up! Lights! Music! A show as fun to watch as it was to prepare!

When the curtain falls for the final time at the end of the first week in February, we'll retire briefly — exhausted — then launch ourselves again: selecting a new Chief Scriptwriter, Producer, Treasurer, Director, and Technical Director, brainstorming for ideas, and presenting them all at our Annual General Meeting, where we'll elect the rest of our committee.

If you like what you see tonight, ask about a position, join us at our AGM (March 25, 7:00pm, DC1301), attend our writers' meetings, or appear in the cast, crew, or audience for FASS '95!
